United States Attorney Deborah R. Gilg announced that Gilbert Ontiveros, 33, of Grand Island, Nebraska, was sentenced on April 20, 2011, to 188 months in prison by United States District Judge Richard G. Kopf, for conspiring to distribute 50 grams or more of actual methamphetamine. In addition to his prison term, Ontiveros will serve five years of supervised release following his release from prison.

Ontiveros was one of several people arrested on November 18, 2010, in the coordinated arrests of several East Side Locos gang members and associates. Ontiveros is currently serving a state prison sentence for distribution of methamphetamine.

This case was investigated by the Central Nebraska Drug and Safe Streets Task Force and the Federal Bureau of Investigation.
